DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-23 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- i. The method of claims 1 or 12, wherein the stress response pathway measured is a single species selected from the group set forth in claims 2 and 13. A single species should be elected from claim 2, which election will also be applied to claim 13.
- ii. The method of claims 1 or 12, wherein the step of measuring transient activation is performed using a single methodology selected from the group set forth in claims 4 and 15. A single species should be elected from claim 4, which election will also be applied to claim 15.
- iii. The method of claims 1 or 12, wherein the measuring step comprises measuring activation of a signaling process or measuring increased nuclear or cellular content of a gene product associated with the stress-response pathways (claims 11 and 23). A single species should be elected from claim 11, which election will also be applied to claim 23.

The species are independent or distinct because the species of i., ii., and iii. are directed to methods requiring measurement of distinct signaling molecules or using distinct detection methods. Methods requiring the detection of distinct signaling molecules require the use of reagents having mutually exclusive properties (e.g., antibodies having distinct specificities, nucleic acid versus protein detection reagents, etc.) and provide information regarding distinct cellular processes. Likewise, the distinct detection methodologies of ii. each comprises unique process steps that are not comprised by the other methodologies. Therefore, each species of i., ii., and iii. comprises a distinct mode of operation, function and effect.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1, 3 and 5-10 are generic to claims 2, 4 and 11 and claims 12, 14, 16, 17-22 are generic to claims 13, 15 and 23.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Art Unit: 1636

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Daniel M Sullivan whose telephone number is 571-272-0779. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday 6:30-3:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Remy Yucel, Ph.D. can be reached on 571-272-0781. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
